

Regarding RM-10355: Re-transmission of space station communications on ham bands would be ok with me. However, one concern is where on the band can this happen, how can it happen without the chance for interference to some hams that may already be using that frequency and on how many frequencys should this be allowed. If those issues can be resolved then I would have no objection to it and in fact it could be quite interesting.